

Volunteer Position: Monday Night Dinner Volunteer(s)/ 3rd Monday of Each Month
Department: Community Programs

SUMMARY

Monday Night Dinner volunteers offer a much needed break to our Safe Shelter residents by donating, preparing and setting out dinner on pre-scheduled nights of the month. This opportunity is essential for creating a welcoming atmosphere for our clients and their children whom are fleeing abuse. It is a great way to serve in an informal and friendly setting!

ESSENTIAL DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

- Plan, prepare, and present dinner to 15-20 adults and children
- Provide any paper goods necessary for the meal (plates, bowls, utensils, etc.)
- Must be able to follow the below timeline:
 - 4pm – Volunteers arrive and set up the already prepared meal to offer clients
 - 5pm – Clients arrive and dinner begins
 - 5:30pm – Dinner ends, clients thank volunteers, and clean up begins
 - 5:35pm – All dinner items have been removed from set up area
 - 6pm or earlier – All left overs and supplies have been put away and kitchen cleaned

*Please note this is a volunteer and in-kind donation opportunity

OTHER KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS AND ABILITIES
